Plaintiff,

v.

12 INTUIT, INC.,

Defendant.

No. C09-944RSL

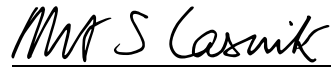

ORDER VACATING
ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
AND DENYING REQUESTS
FOR SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING

15 This matter comes before the Court on the defendant's requests for supplemental briefing
16 (Dkt. ## 35, 41) and the Court's Order to Show Cause (Dkt. # 37). Defendant wishes to submit
17 supplemental briefing on questions of preemption and statutory construction. These matters
18 have been exhaustively briefed already and the Court needs no additional briefing. The parties
19 may make their arguments before the Court when it hears defendant's motion to dismiss.

20 As there was a pending Ninth Circuit appeal that might have resolved the preemption
21 issue in this case, the Court issued an order to show cause (Dkt. # 37) why defendant's motion to 22 dismiss should not be stayed pending the resolution of that appeal. The Ninth Circuit soon after
23 issued its opinion in Williams v. MCIMetro Access Transmission Servs. Inc., 2010 WL 331475
24 (9th Cir. Jan. 28, 2010), but did not address the preemption issues. Accordingly, the Court now
25 VACATES the order to show cause (Dkt. # 37).
